A Big Day

ALBANY'S CIVIC CENTER DEDICATED SATURDAY

"It's just beautiful."
"What a wonderful crowd."
"Oh, my feet."

No matter where you were or at what time Saturday, you heard the above remarks again and again.

It was Albany's day—the dedication of its modern, new Civic Center at 1000 San Pablo Ave.

Blessed with perfect weather, Dedication Day turned out to be everything anyone could hope for—plus. It was doubted that the glittering white thermal roof could be completed in time, but they started putting it on Friday and had most of it installed in time for the ceremonies Saturday.

Crowds began gathering about 1 o'clock at old city hall to watch the flags lowered for the final time. They applauded the parade to new city buildings, headed by Albany High school band wearing its splendid new uniforms for the first time. They filled every available space in the black-topped parking lot at the new Civic Center to hear the dedication ceremony and watch the national, state and city flags hoisted on new aluminum poles.

Mayor Lewis Howell introduced official guests who had come for the ceremonies. Frank Mesple, representing Gov. Edmund G. Brown, read a letter of congratulations from the governor.

Troop 12 Pancake Breakfast Sunday

Boy Scout troop 12 has scheduled its annual pancake breakfast at the Veterans' Memorial building Sunday morning, Jan. 23.

Breakfast will be served from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. by members of the troop. Funds raised will help finance camping and snow trips for the boys.

Tickets, which will be available at the door, are $1 for adult and 50 cents for children under 12.

Eldon Wolf is scoutmaster; Lee Keck, troop committee chairman.

Super Stop Winner

Anita Willing of 722 Stannage Ave., holding ticket 060069, won the women's wrist watch in the second week of the special promotion at Super Stop market.

A watch is given away each week.

Band Fish Fry

AHS Band Boosters are now selling tickets for the second annual Friday Fish Fry to be held from 5-8 p.m. Feb. 11 at Cornell cafeteria.

Last year's benefit was for the band. This year, the orchestra will receive assistance in buying more instruments.

Tickets are $1, good for one adult or two pre-school children.

Each of Albany's councilmen was given an opportunity to say a few words about the new buildings. They thanked the people who voted for the bond issue, praised City Attorney Larry Sailer and Administrative Officer James B. Turner for their work on the building project and each expressed in his own way what Dedication Day meant to him.

The Mayor Says Thanks

Everything about Saturday's city-wide celebration marking the dedication of our new Civic Center was a resounding success.

The weather was beautiful, many distinguished guests came for the event, former residents and city employees returned by the score to rejoice with us.

Each and every committee for the dedication worked diligently to make Jan. 15, 1966, a day to remember. Those working on the city buildings are to be commended for having them in such fine shape for the dedication.

It was a thrill for Albany's official family to see so many of you out for the festivities and to hear your favorable comments about the new Civic Center, which is both beautiful and functional and will serve our city well for years to come.

We are delighted to see such a tremendous turnout at the dinner-dance, particularly so many of our Senior Citizens. A few who came expecting a fancy dinner were disappointed, but everyone who came for fun had a ball.

There are so many to be thanked that I could not attempt to list them all, but heartfelt thanks to everyone who worked and everyone who came.

Saturday was a great day for Albany. Thank you one and all!

LEWIS M. HOWELL
Mayor of the City of Albany

Jimmy Gordon and his orchestra will play for dancing.

FLAGS LOWERED FOR THE LAST TIME at old City Hall brought a tear to the eye of many an oldtimer. In the foreground is the Albany High school band wearing their new uniforms. As soon as the flag ceremony was completed, a symbolic parade to new city buildings began. Crowds lined the street as the parade went by. Boy and Girl Scouts and the color guard of American Legion post 292 were flag bearers. Parade Marshal Frank J. Roberts and city officials rode in convertibles. —Times Photo.

DEDICATION PRAYER

O God, Who hast made all things,—the universe, ourselves, and the very land upon which we stand, hear our prayer as, on this important day, we call upon Thee.

May we be grateful, O God, for the planning and hard work of the many devoted citizens of Albany who have labored over several years for our new civic center.

Be with our Mayor and City Council, our department heads, our city commissions and all the persons who bring to us the blessings of capable government.

O God, Who once came to earth in physical, human form, let us always honor that which takes physical form, even buildings for government and people who work directly in government. May we always remember that the word "civic" means citizen,—that the word "citizenship" means politics.

May we take to heart the truth that politics is neither dirty nor clean but as we make it. May we make it, and keep it, clean. May we know, O God, that to withdraw our wholesome influence from politics marks us as less than citizens,—that to give our wholesome influence through politics marks us as concerned citizens.

O God, may we, therefore, on this splendid day, here in our town, so pray and work and give, that our time, talents and treasure may be spent to help transform this city of man into a city of God, through thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Invocation delivered by the Rev. John H. Blackledge, Dedication of Albany's Civic Center, Jan. 15, 1966

COUNCIL TRIES OUT NEW CHAMBERS FIRST TIME

Albany City Council Monday night happily conducted its first meeting in the spanking new council chambers at the Civic Center.

The audience, about 20 people, sat on folding chairs.

Councilmen split 3-2 on a couple of matters. Mayor Lewis Howell and Councilman Parker voted against granting a 12-day extension to S. J. Amoroso, contractor for new city buildings. The extension covers the period from Jan. 3-15 and the contractor is now on penalty time of $100 a day. The buildings should be fully completed by the latter part of this week or early next week, Administrative Officer James B. Turner said.

The other split vote involved charging each candidate for office in the April municipal election a $50 deposit to help pay the cost of printing 150-word statements and postage for their inclusion with the sample ballots. Councilmen Richard Clark and Joseph Egenberger voted against $50, indicating the believed $35 was sufficient.

Unanimously approved were the ordinance providing for salary increases for the police chief and city attorney effective after the April election; resolutions appointing Don Dupin as community center director at a salary of $494 a month, and authorizing the employment of George Wonnop for another year; the mayor's proclamation of Jan. 23-30 as YMCA Week; the preparation of a resolution authorizing the inclusion of the school tax increase proposal in Albany's city election ballots with a request to City Attorney Larry Sailer to make recommendations regarding pro rata charge to the school for the service;

Dedication Stories Take Precedence

"If you don't find it, don't fret—

You'll get your story in the Times yet!"

Because of the dedication of Albany's new city buildings, the Times has devoted most of its space in two issues to that important civic event.

We hope reporters will understand if their stories are either shortened or omitted in favor of what we consider items of important historical value. We shall make every effort to publish your stories which are still current in future editions.

Mechanics Bank Announces Plans to Build

Mechanics Bank, who purchased the property formerly occupied by the police and fire stations at Washington and San Pablo, today announced plans to build a modern new bank with ample parking on the 26,000 square foot site.

A spokesman said that Marvin E. Collins, general contractor, plans to request a use permit from the Planning and Zoning commission of Albany this week.

Although the new bank is still at the drawing-board stage, it will be a building of approximately 5,500-6,000 square feet with complete banking facilities, including a drive-in window.

Evenings and Sundays call Mr. Larimer, LA 4-5858

Mayor of many surrounding communities were introduced as was Mrs. Bernice Hubbard May, member of the Berkeley City Council.

Letters were read from an assistant to President Lydon Johnson and U.S. Senators Thomas Kuchel and George Murphy.

Invocation was by the Rev. John H. Blackledge of St. Alban's Episcopal church and the benediction was by the Rev. Patrick M. Finnegan of St. Ambrose Catholic church.

As the platform ceremony ended, officials took their places behind a wide red ribbon with a bow in the center. Mayor Howell posed with the large gold scissors as cameras clicked or whirled. Then he neatly snipped the ribbon as the crowd cheered.

Following a brief ceremony unveiling the plaque just inside the entrance to city hall, crowds began inspecting the new buildings. Hostesses at various stations invited those attending to sign up. By 4:30 the first people had arrived at Golden Gate Fields to wait for dinner which Giovanni's (who had worked all night the night before) were busy setting up. Early arrivals started eating shortly after 5. By 7 the line had wound around the bar a couple of times and people were still arriving in droves.

At this writing there are no official figures on attendance at the party Saturday night but committee members estimate the crowd numbered between 2,500 and 3,000.

Nearly HALF the transbay commuters now go by bus

...if they didn't we'd need ANOTHER Bay Bridge tomorrow!*

More and more transbay commuters are switching from automobiles. Nearly half now travel by bus. And the number is growing.

Reason I—AC Transit has reduced running times by greater use of freeway routing. In most cases AC Transit is faster than driving and parking your car.

Reason II—Special service has been extended into new neighborhoods.

Reason III—Commuting by AC Transit is not only fast but comfortable, carefree. You can relax, read your paper...and save money.

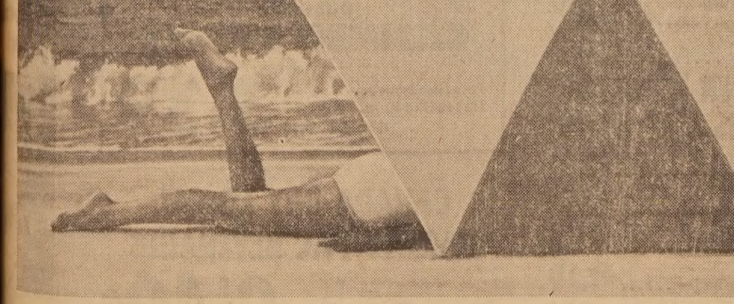

Reason IV—Commuters living too far from the bus line have found it's better to drive to the bus stop, then take the bus. (Nearly one in five do this.)

If you are still commuting by car let AC Transit show you the better way!

Income Tax Class in Adult Ed

A class entitled "How to Prepare Your Income Tax Return" is being conducted at the Albany Evening School, 703 Key Route Blvd., by Stanley R. Kendall, a Berkeley practicing attorney.

The class meets on Tuesday evenings commencing at 7:30 p.m. and terminating at 9:30, and will be for the duration of eight consecutive weeks commencing on Jan. 4.

There have been many changes in the income tax law covering the year 1965. Special emphasis will be placed on the changes that affect individuals in the preparation of their federal and state income tax returns.

The course will cover various types of income both taxable and non-taxable, along with deductions that are allowable and non-allowable. The course is especially designed to cover in simple concise language the preparation of income tax returns covering salary income, dividends, interest, rental income, pensions and annuities, sales of property, as well as other types of income, and the deductions that are allowable under the new law covering these types of income. The course is extremely helpful to those individuals who will be preparing their own tax returns without professional help.

LOOK WHO'S IN JAIL! Quite by accident, Virginia Moody of 917 Pierce became the first person to be locked in one of the cells at the new Albany Police Department. Councilman Joel Parker, Jr., left, was showing her around. When she stepped into a cell, she remarked how horrible it would be to be locked in. So Parker decided to let her "get the feeling," not realizing when he snapped the door shut it would be half an hour later before Inspector Vern Freeman, the man with the key (center), could be called from Richmond to release the prisoner.

Wood, consumer specialist, Food and Drug Administration, San Francisco district.

Relating the fast-changing field of nutrition research to the pseudo thoughts of those who can rightly be classified as "quacks," Miss Wood will illustrate with Eighty-eight children and group leaders planted poppies on the eastern slope of Albany Hill recently.

The California poppy seeds were provided by James Mason, manager of Roos/Atkins in the Plaza.

The conservation and beautification project was sponsored by Hill and Dale Women's club of El Cerrito with Mrs. Leonard Lindberg of Albany as chairman assisted by President Mrs. Eldon Parr.

Seeds were planted on privately-owned land. Owners had given permission for the project.

Youth groups of Albany and El

Cerrito participated. The slopes were steep and muddy but the children persisted. They dug short trenches with sticks, sprinkled the seed and roughed it over with the stick. Boy Scouts will plant on the south end later. In November 200 Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts planted poppies at the quarry in El Cerrito under the supervision of Mrs. Lloyd Bush.

Participating were St. Jerome's 7th grade junior high Camp Fire Girls, leader Mrs. Henry Accornero; cub pack 23, St. Jerome's and Harding school, Ken Almeida, cubmaster; Girl Scout troop 1120 Madera school, Mrs.

Albany Health Department Provides Many Services

The Albany Health department has a wide range of services that provide assistance, protection and education with respect to health matters to every person in his community.

He stated that among the services which affect us are those of sanitary inspection and control of water supply and sewage facilities, as well as the routine sampling of air to detect pollution levels. In addition, such activities as insect control, food inspection, and the maintenance of eating establishment and public accommodation standards are included. Service is also provided by professional health personnel, and child health care which can reach those who might otherwise be without care if these programs were not available.

The health department is the keeper of vital statistics, providing authoritative records on births, deaths and certain diseases. It is also the watchdog of the region, taking measures to prevent communicable diseases from becoming epidemic.

In the area of education, he explained that the health department distributes informational literature and provides counseling on health problems including care of the aged, home safety, mental health, accident prevention, occupational safety, nutrition, and many others.

M. R. Foss of Albany was among 114 intercity drivers for Consolidated Freightways based at San Leandro who closed 1965 with a second million-mile safe driving record. The unit's most recent no-accident run began on November 16 and was concluded December 29, with a total of 1,034,156 safe miles, according to CF's local terminal manager, Richard Koopman.

"In every respect," Doctor McMahon concluded, "the Albany Health department is your health department, supported by you and dedicated to your service within this community."

Author Book
"God Lit in Word and World" is the title of a new book by Kenneth C. Senft, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church, Berkeley.

The book was published by Mustard Hill Books, Box 1292, Berkeley, the first week in January. It is prepared for use by members of congregations, pastors, inquirers, and especially for those who are among an increasing number preparing for a more effective lay ministry.

SENIOR CITIZENS
846 Masonic Ave.

A slight mistake was made in last week's report from the Center. The dancing class begins at 7:30 instead of 5:30 p.m. and continues until 9:30.

The Welfare department of Alameda county has provided Seniors with material from which to make receiving blankets and sashes for babies. Community service workers are working on this project for the adoption agency in Oakland Fridays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Come in and see the beautiful things the resin casting class is making from 10 to 5 on Wednesdays.

Be sure to attend the fascinating lecture on dolls to be given by Mrs. Drucilla Strehlow on Tuesday, Jan. 25, from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

The birthday party for members having birthdays in December and January will be held Thursday, Jan. 27, after bingo games and singing.

Kathryn Kay has been enjoying a visit from her late husband's sister, Mrs. Genevieve Haggard of Washington state. Mrs. Haggard, who was Kathryn's guest at the Center Thursday, will continue to Virginia, where she will make her home.

A surprise program is being planned at the Center in February.

Letters
Editor, the Times:
I wonder how many people who went out for a pleasant evening last Saturday were disappointed. We were a party of eight; by the time we got our dinner there were only six, since two were not able to stand in the line the two and one half hours that it took to reach the food. We got the equivalent of six 50 cent sandwiches for $16.

Everyone who bought a ticket, naturally planned to go, since it was not a fund raising affair—then why were so many tickets sold?

Surely there is much surplus money—I think we would all feel better about it if we knew that the money went for something worthwhile—perhaps to pay off some of the indebtedness on the Civic Center.

The afternoon dedication ceremony, however, was beautifully done.

Sincerely,
MRS. MARJORIE MIFFLIN

Editor, the Times:
We hereby wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and continued success in the coming years to the Albany Times, Ellis-Olson mortuary and the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce as sponsors of the Albany Christmas Home Decorations Contest. It is hoped many more Albany citizens will participate in this community project of expressing "Peace on Earth—Goodwill to all Mankind."

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cabral
